RULES AND REGULATIONS

TRADING WAIVER PERIODS

Within Own League: No waivers necessary from last day of season to midnight, June 15. Waivers are necessary from midnight, June 15 (Pacific Coast Time) to final day of the season.

Inter League: Waivers are necessary at all times except during the two inter-league trading periods. (The first inter-league trading period allows for the assignment of player contracts from one major league to another without waivers in the period starting 12:01 Pacific Coast Time, February 15th, and ending at midnight, March 15th, Pacific Coast Time. The second inter-league trading period comes five days after the close of the World Series and continues until midnight of the night preceding the last scheduled day of the Winter Meetings (Annual Meetings) (the time to be that of the city in which the meetings are held).

National Association: Waivers are required at all times for assignment to National Association, except for optional assignments within three years of date player first reported to the major leagues.

USE OF DESIGNATED HITTER

Rule 6.10 provides that "Any League may elect to use the Designated Hitter Rule.

(a) In the event of inter-league competition between any clubs of Leagues using the Designated Hitter Rule and clubs of Leagues not using the Designated Hitter Rule, the rule will be used as follows:

1. In exhibition games, the rule will be used or not used as is the practice of the home team.
2. In All-Star games, the rule will only be used if both teams and both Leagues so agree.
3. In World Series play, the rule will be used every other year. It will be used in all even numbered years.

DESIGNATED HITTER FOR THE PITCHER RULE

A hitter may be designated to bat for the starting pitcher and all subsequent pitchers in any game without otherwise affecting the status of the pitcher(s) in the game. A Designated Hitter for the pitcher must be selected prior to the game and must be included in the lineup card presented to the umpire-in-chief.

It is not mandatory that a club designate a hitter for the pitcher, but failure to do so prior to the game precludes the use of a Designated Hitter for that game.

Pinch hitters for a Designated Hitter may be used. Any substitute hitter for a Designated Hitter himself becomes a Designated Hitter. A replaced Designated Hitter shall not re-enter the game in any capacity.

The Designated Hitter may be used defensively, continuing to bat in the same position in the batting order, but the pitcher must then bat in the place of the substituted defensive player, unless more than one substitution is made, and the manager then must designate their spots in the batting order.

A runner may be substituted for the Designated Hitter and the runner assumes the role of Designated Hitter.

A Designated Hitter is "locked" into the batting order. No multiple substitutions may be made that will alter the batting rotation of the Designated Hitter.

Once the game pitcher is switched from the mound to a defensive position this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once a pinch-hitter bats for any player in the batting order and then enters the game to pitch, this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once the game pitcher bats for the Designated Hitter this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once a Designated Hitter assumes a defensive position this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

SUPSENDED GAME RULE

Rule 4.12 SUSPENDED GAMES

(a) A league shall adopt the following rules providing for completion at a future date of games terminated for any of the following reasons:

(1) A curfew imposed by law;

(2) A time limit permissible under league rules;

(3) Light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club. (Mechanical field device shall include automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment.);

(4) Darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on.

(5) Weather, if the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, and one of the following situations prevails:

(i) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score, and the home team has not scored.

(ii) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead, and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

(b) Such games shall be known as suspended games. No game called because of a curfew, weather, or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game under the provisions of Rule 4.10. A game called under the provisions of 4.12(a)(3) or (4) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts.

(c) By amending NOTE to read as follows:

NOTE: Weather and similar conditions—4.12(a) (1 through 5)—shall take precedence in determining whether a called game shall be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the five (5) reasons specified in Section (a). Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied (unless situation oulined in 4.12(a)(5)(i) prevails) is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

(c) A suspended game shall be resumed and completed as follows:

(1) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same grounds; or

(2) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header between the two clubs on the same grounds, if no single game remains on the schedule, or

(3) If suspended on the last scheduled date between the two clubs in the city, transferred and played on the grounds of the opposing club, if possible;

SUSPENDED GAME RULE – GAME-WINNING RBI RULES IN EFFECT FOR 1980 SEASON

The Suspended Game Rule change and the Game-Winning RBI statistic will become effective at the start of the 1980 baseball season. These new rules, described on this page, take effect at the start of the season.

INTENTIONALLY PITCH AT THE BATTER

Rule 8.02 (d)

If, in the umpire's judgment, such a violation occurs, the umpire shall warn the pitcher and his manager that another such pitch will mean immediate expulsion of the pitcher. At the same time the umpire shall warn the opposing manager that such an infraction by his pitcher shall result in that pitcher's expulsion.

If, in the umpire's judgment, there is another such pitch during the game by any pitcher, the umpire shall eject the pitcher from the game.

If, in the umpire's judgment, circumstances warrant, one or both teams may be officially "warned" prior to the game or an actual violation during the game in progress.

(League Presidents may take additional action under authority provided in Rule 9.05.)

PLAYER LIMITS—ROOKIE QUALIFICATION

PLAYER LIMITS. The active player limit from opening day through August 31 is 25 players, and 40 players from September 1 through the end of the season. The minimum number of active players maintained by each club throughout the Championship Season shall be 24. Players in military service do not count against the under control list while on active duty. Upon separation from the service, a player will be reinstated to his club's normal player limits after he has completed a 15-day trial period or has participated in a championship game, whichever comes first.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATION: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of a 25-player limit (excluding time in the military service).

"SAVE" RULE

(Adopted on recommendation of the BBWAA)

Rule 10.20 SAVES FOR RELIEF PITCHERS

Credit a Pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and

(2) He is not the winning pitcher; and

(3) He qualified under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning.

(b) He enters the game with the potential tieing run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tieing run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces); or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE

All night games must be called at 1 a.m. local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1 a.m. local time, it can be completed. In Baltimore, no inning may begin after 11:59 p.m., but play must end at 11:59 Saturday night regardless of the situation.

Curfews shall be waived for the final series of the season in each of the two parks of two contesting teams.

GAME WINNING RBI

"GAME-WINNING RBI" is the run batted in that gives a club a lead it never relinquishes. (NOTE: There does not have to be a game-winning RBI in every game and all game-winning RBIs must conform to Rule 10.04.)

Al Kaline in the "Hall of Fame"

QUIET MAN'S REWARD RAINS STARDUST ON CITY

By Jerry Green
Sports Columnist for the DETROIT NEWS

He was in a slate gray suit, turning gray himself midway through the limbo period between the last at bat and the first election.

"In a couple of years I'll be eligible," Al Kaline said that night in a private talk, "and I really dread it."

Ernie Banks had gone into the Hall of Fame the day before. Much was made of the fact he had gone in the first year he was eligible.

"I dread what will happen waiting to hear. I hope I make it the first year. But I don't want to get my hopes up too high.

"If I'd played in New York or been outspoken I think I'd have a better chance. But I never said much. I just played the game."

There was nothing to dread, no need to fret.

He never had to say a lot. His performances sang for him. The performances were truth and strength. And yesterday the reward came. He became the 10th man in baseball history to be elected to the Hall of Fame the first time his name appeared on the ballot.

Election to the baseball Hall of Fame is the finest honor that can be given to an American athlete. Baseball is the pure sport, the game that turns a city on more than any other.

I returned to Pittsburgh the other day for the championship football game. The stadium was full and the people, bundled in their parkas and fortified by their drinks, were noisy and excited.

But the excitement was trivial in comparison to the boisterous atmosphere of 2½ months before when the Pittsburgh Pirates played in the World Series.

Despite its magnetic appeal, football never can electrify a city the way baseball can. And baseball can do it because of performers like Al Kaline. . . .

Kaline, by entering the Hall of Fame on his first chance, has restored something to the national image of this town. . . .

Kaline of Detroit was a complete baseball player. He was not Willie Mays nor was he DiMaggio. He did not generate the excitement a Mickey Mantle did and he never matched Charlie Gehringer as an artist at the plate.

But he made it into the Hall of Fame because he had all the skills and because he played for so many seasons. The prestige of making it in the first year cannot be underestimated.

The Great DiMag was forced to wait by a fussy electorate. The Waner Brothers, Paul and Lloyd, Robin Roberts, Dizzy Dean, Hank Greenberg, Gehringer, Mel Ott, Al Simmons, Roy Campanella—they were rebuffed the first time their names came up.

Kaline was not. That was the ultimate tribute to a complete ball player. . . .

> "Election to the Baseball Hall of Fame is the finest honor that can be given to an American athlete. Baseball is the pure sport, the game that turns a city on more than any other . . . And baseball can do it because of performers like Al Kaline."

Al Kaline

WE REMEMBER . . . .

It was a difficult year once again . . . as the American League lost so many dear friends. Following the untimely death late in 1978 of the California Angels' Lyman Bostock, 1979 was the year when the Yankees' great catcher, Thurman Munson, was killed on a test flight near his home in Canton, Ohio. Also passing from the scene last year were Joe Iglehart, former Baltimore board chairman and later a Yankee director; Jack Butterfield, vice president of the Yankees and farm director; Clyde Kluttz, Baltimore's director of player development; former A.L. umpire Bill Grieve, former Yankee executive Jackie Farrell and many others.

To all of them who contributed so much to the game of Baseball, this 51st annual American League Red Book is dedicated.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

JAMES (Jim) LOUIS FREGOSI—Born April 4, 1942, San Francisco, CA; Residence: Santa Ana, CA...Married (Jan), two children...Height: six feet, two inches; Weight: 205 pounds...Named manager June 1, 1978, succeeding Dave Garcia.

Despite a rash of injuries (47), the employment of 81 different line-ups and a pitching staff with an ERA of 4.34—highest in club history, Fregosi piloted club to first division title in the 19 year history of organization in his first full year as a manager. Finished second in AP balloting for A.L. Manager of the Year behind Earl Weaver. In one-and-a-half years as the Angels' pilot, Fregosi's teams have recorded a 150-128 .540 log, the third highest win total by an Angels' manager. Team was 62-54 under Fregosi in 1978 and finished 88-74 last season—best record in club history. As a player, Fregosi's career spanned 18 major league seasons during which he registered a .265 lifetime average. He was originally acquired by the Angels December 14, 1960 in the expansion draft from the Boston Red Sox on the 17th round. Was traded to the New York Mets on Dec. 10, 1971 for Nolan Ryan, Lee Stanton and two others. Went to Texas Rangers in 1973 and to Pirates in 1977. Played final major league game on May 31, 1978 for Pirates. Fregosi was voted the Angels Owners' Trophy, symbolic of the MVP three times; earned All-Star recognition as a shortstop six times; was a Gold Glove recipient in 1964 and by a vote of fans, was selected the all-time greatest Angel in 1969. Managed Ponce to Puerto Rican League championship in winter of 1969-70 in only previous managerial capacity.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

GEORGE LEE (Sparky) ANDERSON—Born February 22, 1934, Bridgewater SD; Residence: Thousand Oaks, CA...Married (Carol), three children...Height: five feet nine inches; Weight: 170 pounds...Became 28th manager of the Tigers replacing Les Moss during the 1979 season.

Sparky Anderson came to Detroit on June 14 with one of the most successful managerial careers in the history of baseball. Sparky's lifetime winning percentage (.591) is second only to Baltimore's Earl Weaver (.597) for active managers, and is fifth best for any manager with 10 years experience since 1900. Before landing the job with the Tigers, Sparky held the reins in Cincinnati, 1970-78. It was there that he earned his reputation as one of the best in the business behind the bench as he guided the Reds to five division titles, four NL pennants and back-to-back World's Championships in 1975 and 1976. For his efforts, Sparky was named NL Manager-of-the-Year in 1972 and 1975. His all-time record of 919-636 was the best for any manager during the decade of the 70s, narrowly beating out Weaver (944-656/.590). Only Weaver's teams won more games in the last 10 years. After assuming the duties as the Tiger's manager, Sparky finished the campaign with a 56-50 mark in what he referred to as a "prolonged spring training." Sparky admittedly used the time to look long and hard at the team he feels will be the team of the 80s. If ever there was a man with the grit and determination to succeed, Sparky Anderson fills the bill. A tireless worker, Sparky was hired through the 1984 season. Previously, he played 10 seasons in the minor leagues and one, 1959, in the majors (with the Phillies). His managerial experience began with Toronto of the International League in 1964 and spanned five years before being hired for one season as coach with the San Diego Padres in 1969.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

JAMES GOTTFREID FREY—Born May 26, 1931, Cleveland, . . . Married (Joan), four children . . . Height: five feet, nine inches; Weight 170 pounds . . . Named Royals Manager October 24, 1979.

Prior to being named Royals' manager, Frey spent 15 years in the Baltimore Orioles' organization. He served as the Orioles' hitting instructor from 1970-79 and first base coach from 1976-79. He was bullpen coach from 1970-75, a scout from 1966-69, managed the Blue Field Orioles in 1964-65 and has been a hitting instructor and training program coordinator for the Orioles' Florida Instructional League Club. His managing experience also includes the 1973 and 74 winters at Magallan in the Venezuelan League. Frey never played major league baseball despite a sparkling 14-year minor league career in which he compiled a .302 lifetime average. He won the batting title in 1957 at Tulsa in the Texas League when he hit .336 and in 1960 at Rochester in the International League when he hit .317. While winning his first batting title he also led the league in seven offensive categories and was selected as the League's Most Valuable Player. Was originally signed by the Milwaukee Braves.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

RICHARD DALTON (Dick) HOWSER—Born May 14, 1936, Miami, FL; Residence: Tallahassee, FL...Married (Nancy), two children...Height: five feet, nine inches; Weight: 160 pounds...Became the Yankee manager on October 28, 1979, returning to the organization after spending a year away as the head baseball coach at Florida State University.

Dick was the Yanks third base coach from 1969-78, then went to FSU in '79 where he led the Seminoles to the NCAA Eastern Regionals with a 43-16 record in his first year of college coaching. Dick succeeded the legendary Frank Crosetti as Yankee third base coach in 1969, after an 8 year career as an infielder. He was named the Sporting News Rookie of the Year in 1961 when he stole 37 bases and made the All Star team for the A's. The Yankees obtained him from Cleveland in 1966, and Howser spent two years as a utility infielder here. Dick managed the Yankees Instructional League team in Florida for two years. He managed the Yankees for one game on July 24th, 1978, after Billy Martin had resigned, a 5-2 loss to the Royals in KC. Howser and new Yankee GM, Gene Michael, formed the Yankees double play combination for part of the 1968 season. The two men were both Yankee coaches in 1968. Howser at third and "stick" at first. Dick batted .248 during his 8 year career. A friend of Burt Reynolds, whom he went to high school and college with. Holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education from Florida State.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

ALFRED MANUEL (Billy) MARTIN—Born May 16, 1928, Berkeley, CA . . . Residence: Arlington,, TX . . . Height: 5 feet, 11 inches; Weight: 170 pounds.

Oakland is the fifth different American League team to be managed by the irrepressible Billy Martin (plus two terms with the Yankees). Led Yanks to pennants in 1976 and 1977 and World Championship in '77. Replaced by Bob Lemon in 1978, then replaced Lemon during 1979. Has had stormy, but successful career as a field pilot, taking the Twins and Tigers to the LCS and managing Texas to a strong second place finish. Billy joined Huggins, McCarthy, Harris, Stengle and Houk, as the only managers to lead the Yankees to World Championships. Billy was a sparkplug of the Yankee infield when he played for Casey Stengel, 1950-57. He was a member of 6 pennant winners as a player. Always considered a player who got the most out of his ability, and one who symbolized the magic of the Yankee uniform. Billy returned to manage the Yankees on August 2, 1975, after tenures with Minnesota, Detroit and Texas. He led the Twins to the Western Division title in 1969, and the Tigers to the Eastern Division title in 1972. He led the Rangers to a surprising second place finish in 1974, and was named the Associated Press Manager of the Year. As a player Billy used to come alive at World Series time, as his lifetime .333 average proves. Made a famous catch of a short pop hit by Jackie Robinson to save the 1952 series, and batted .500 in the 1953 classic to win the Babe Ruth Award. A member of the 1956 All Star team. Graduated from Berkeley H.S. in 1946 and signed with Oakland of the PCL. Played for Stengel there in 1947 and in 1948. Purchased by the Yanks from Kansas City in 1950. Also played for the Athletics, Tigers, Indians, Reds, Braves and Twins in 12 year career. Considered a master of the rules and a fiery, exciting leader. Runs the game and sets the tempo of a team more than most managers. Appointed Oakland manager on eve of spring training (Feb. 21st) by Charles O. Finley. Was AP Manager of the Year in 1976. He is among top managers all time in winning percentage (see page 56). Returns "home" as Oakland manager.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

PATRICK CORRALES—Born March 20, 1941, Los Angeles, CA; Residence: Arlington, TX . . . Married (Heidyt), five children . . . Height: six feet; Weight: 200 pounds . . . Named manager of the Rangers on the final day of the 1978 season at Seattle, succeeding Bill Hunter, and won that game.

Piloted the Rangers to an 83-79 third place finish, five games back of division leading California, in his rookie year as manager. Was hampered by injuries to key personnel. Managed Ponce, Puerto Rico, for two years and Caracas, Venezuela, for one year in winter leagues. Managed Alexandria, LA, of Texas League in 1975. Named coach for the Texas Rangers September 13, 1975. Coached in bullpen, at first base and third base under Frank Lucchesi and Bill Hunter. A former catcher, he spent eight years in the majors with the Phillies (1964-65), Cardinals (1966), Reds (1968-72) and Padres (1972-73). He roomed with Johnny Bench of the Reds for four years. Three of his teammates at Fresno, California, High—Dick Ellsworth, Jim Maloney and Dick Selma—also made it to the majors. Holds major league record for most times being awarded first base due to catcher's interference, twice in one game and six times during the 1965 season.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

ROBERT JAMES (Bob) MATTICK – Born December 5, 1915, Sioux City, IA; Residence: Gilroy, CA...Married (Jacqueline)...Height: five feet, eleven inches; Weight: 190 pounds...Second Manager of the Blue Jays; appointed October 18, 1979.

Started in baseball as shortstop with Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast League in 1934. Played in the majors with the Cubs and the Cincinnati Reds from 1939 to 1942. His playing career was finished at the age of 27 due to an eye injury that resulted in double vision. Became deeply involved in scouting and player development. Started scouting in 1946 with the Yankees but moved over to Cincinnati in 1947 where he stayed until 1961 except for one year with the White Sox (1948). In 1961 moved to Houston organization as scout and then over to the Cleveland Indians in 1964. Spent one year (1967) with the Baltimore Orioles before helping start up the expansion Seattle Pilots in 1969 and moved to Milwaukee with club as head of player development. Moved over to the Montreal Expos for five years ('72 to '76) to do scouting and work with development of their young prospects. Began to work for Toronto in 1976 as Scouting Supervisor. Was instrumental in the drafting and development of Blue Jays original roster. In 1978 appointed Director of Player Development and was in charge of all minor league field activities. As a scout, Mattick has done it all, finding and evaluating prospects including free agents, high school and college players as well as major and minor leaguers. Known as top flight field organizer, communicator and teacher. Father, Wally (Chick) Mattick was former major League player with Chicago White Sox (1912-13) and St. Louis Cardinals (1918). Managed for part of season at Ogden, Utah, of Pioneer League (1948).

AMERICAN LEAGUE SETS NEW ALL-TIME ATTENDANCE RECORD OF 22,371,979; SEVEN CLUBS REACH HIGHS

With half the American League teams setting individual club home attendance records in 1979, the American League once again attracted an all-time sports league attendance record with 22,371,979 paid spectators to the league's 14 stadia. It was the second year in a row that twenty million-plus fans paid to see A.L. season games.

For the first time, four clubs in the A.L. drew over two million at home (Boston, California, Kansas City and New York), with the Angels recording the greatest increase (768,189). For a record third consecutive year, the New York Yankees attracted better than two million fans both at home and on the road, and the Yankees' 2,537,765 topped the league (14,000 ahead of the Angels).

The seven clubs setting individual home attendance records were Baltimore, Boston, California, Kansas City, Milwaukee, New York Yankees and Texas.

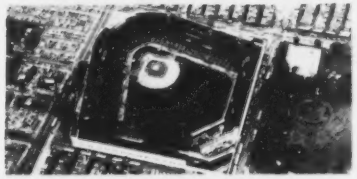
AMERICAN LEAGUE BASEBALL

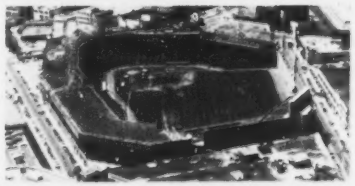
THE STADIA

(In Order of Seniority)

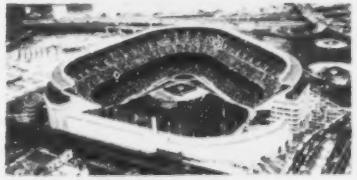
1 Baseball has been played on the site of Tiger Stadium since 1900, a year before the American League was born, with Detroit as a charter member. Bennett Park at that time, it became Navin Field in 1912, Briggs Stadium in 1938 and Tiger Stadium on January 1, 1961. A renovation was started in November, 1977 after the historic plant was sold to the City of Detroit for $1.00 and leased back to the Tigers for 30 years with a 30-year renewal option. Prior to the sale the Tigers financed the installation of a multi-vapor field lighting system and construction of a pressbox to replace the one destroyed by fire earlier that year. By Opening Day, 1980, installation of all modern plastic seats will be completed.



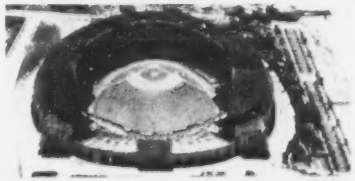
2 Chicago's Comiskey Park was built in great haste in early 1910. Ground was broken on February 15th and by mid-March the foundation was nearing completion. Seats were installed in June, 1910, and the park was ready for play by mid-season. In the 1920's the bleachers were expanded to raise the park's capacity to 41,000 and that was the only major change in Comiskey Park since it was built. The exploding scoreboard was completed prior to the 1960 season, and the park has undergone periodic maintenance renovation.



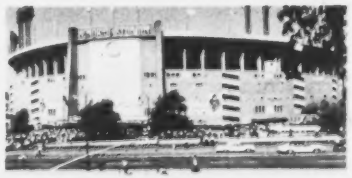
3 Construction began on Fenway Park in 1911 and the park was ready for the opening game of the 1912 season. It replaced Boston's Huntington Avenue Grounds. Fenway was revamped in 1933, for the 1934 season, with an increased seating capacity of slightly over 34,000. With the exception of minor changes, Fenway Park stands virtually the same today, with its famed "Green Monster" left field wall and cozy surroundings.



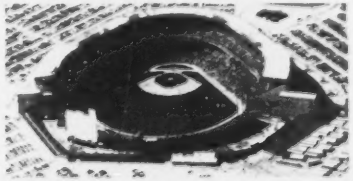
4 Yankee Stadium in New York has been the home of the Yankees since its opening on April 18, 1923. The Stadium underwent a complete modernization program during the 1974 and 1975 seasons and reopened again in 1976. "New" Yankee Stadium's scoreboard has an instant replay facility. The site has hosted 30 of the Yankees' 32 World Series, with the Yanks winning all of their 22 World Championships there. Original construction began on May 5, 1922. lights were installed in 1946 and a new scoreboard in 1950. In 1959 the Yanks added a new board with the first changeable message area at a major league park in America.



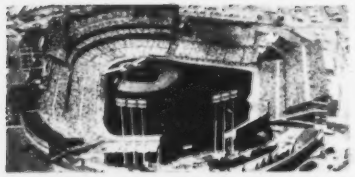
5 Work was started on Cleveland Stadium (the largest baseball seating capacity, 76,713—in baseball) in 1930 and completed in 1931. The first baseball game was played there on July 31, 1932, but the Indians' first full season in the Stadium was 1933 after which the club returned to League Park, playing only occasionally at the Stadium. The team returned on a full-time basis in 1947 and has remained there since. Seating renovations were made in time for the 1975 season and the Stadium's computerized scoreboard was completed in time for the 1978 season.



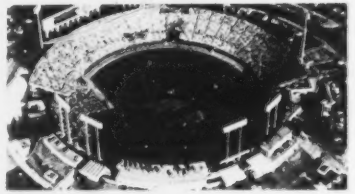
6 Baltimore's Memorial Stadium is dedicated to the men who fought in World Wars I and II. It replaced Baltimore Stadium, primarily a football facility, and was financed by two city bond issues. Construction began in May, 1949, and was completed in October, 1953, in time for the arrival of the Orioles in 1954. Renovations and changes were made in 1959, 1960, 1964 and 1978. Six new towers are currently being constructed, one of which will house a new ticket window and additional ticket office space.



7 The construction of Milwaukee's County Stadium was first proposed in 1920, but it wasn't until October 19, 1950 that excavation work for the foundation began. In 1953 the County Board voted for the construction of additional seating to increase the original capacity of 36,011 to 43,394. The outfield wall was constructed in 1960 and moving ramps were installed in 1962 and 1964. The years 1972, 1973, 1974 and 1975 brought additional construction, changes and renovation to bring the Stadium's capacity to the present 53,192. The most recent facelifting at County Stadium is an advanced electronic scoreboard system to be installed and operating in April, 1980.



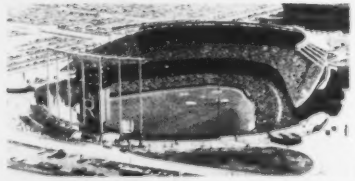
8 Minnesota's Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington was begun in the fall of 1954 and opened in April, 1956 for the AAA American Association's season. The Minneapolis Millers played in Metropolitan for five seasons (through 1960). During the 1961 season, the first at Metropolitan Stadium for the Minnesota Twins, a double-deck grandstand was added to the existing original triple-deck grandstand and temporary bleachers were also added. In 1964 construction was started on a double-deck pavilion in left field which was opened for the All-Star Game of 1965. A new downtown domed stadium is being built in Minneaplis, with a scheduled 1982 opening.



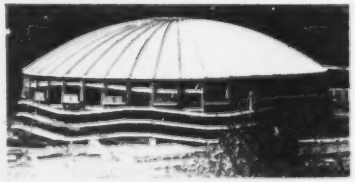
9 In 1964 Turnpike Stadium was constructed for the Dallas-Ft. Worth Spurs of the Texas League to play in for the 1965 season. Its seating capacity was 10,600. When the Washington Senators were transferred and became the Texas Rangers, Turnpike was renamed Arlington Stadium. In late 1971 and 1972 the stadium was enlarged to seat 35,698 and was enlarged again to 41,097 for the 1978 season. The leftfield scoreboard features an outline of the map of Texas.

10 California's Anaheim Stadium was completed in 1966 after an August 31, 1964 ground-breaking. The Stadium derives its nickname, "The Big A", from its giant A-frame scoreboard. Current construction (to be completed in 1980) will increase seating capacity to approximately 60,000 for baseball and 70,000 for football. A massive new scoreboard will be installed and the Big A board preserved and moved behind the right field area. The N.F.L. Rams move to Anaheim in 1980.

11 Ground was broken for the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum on April 15, 1964, with the first Stadium event being held there on September 18, 1966. The 1968 season brought the A's to Oakland and the Coliseum's 50,000 capacity for baseball. The Stadium is three-tiered and features a recessed playing field, 28 feet below ground—for easy entry and minimal stair climbing. It is part of a combination of a major league Stadium, multi-purpose arena and adjoining Exhibit Hall.



12 Royals Stadium and the unique Harry S. Truman Sports Complex have become landmarks in Kansas City. Built exclusively for baseball in 1973, the stadium opened on April 10th. Royals Stadium features Tartan turf, a 322-foot wide water spectacular, and a 12-story high scoreboard in the shape of the Royals' crest, which contains 16,320 light bulbs. It is considered one of the premier baseball stadia in America.



13 The A.L.'s only domed stadium—the Kingdome in Seattle—is the first facility of its kind in the West. Ground was broken for the King County domed stadium on November 2, 1972 and work completed on March 27, 1976. Less than a year later, April 5, 1977, the expansion Seattle Mariners played in the Kingdome and Major League Baseball returned to Seattle. The stadium features an Astroturf playing surface, a matrix scoreboard, a Telscreen with color instant replay capabilities and an average temperature of 68.72 degrees.

14 Exhibition Stadium, on the grounds of the Canadian National Exhibition, constructed 1975-1976, opened for baseball on April 7, 1977, and became the home of the expansion Toronto Blue Jays. Situated on a 350-acre complex of exhibition buildings, amusement park, landscaped gardens, restaurants and concert facilities, the stadium is owned by the Municipality of Metropolitan Toronto and operated by the Exhibition Stadium Corporation. Exhibition Stadium features an Astroturf surface and an electronic scoreboard, which was installed in 1978.

MC CARTHY, WEAVER, ANDERSON AMONG TOP FIVE MANAGERS IN WON-LOST PERCENT

Baltimore's Earl Weaver managed the Orioles to their 1,000th win in the 1979 season opener and to the club's 1,101st victory by season's end under his stewardship to take third place among all managers with one thousand or more decisions as a major league pilot, and including service in the 20th century. Earl's .597 won-lost percentage places him third all-time behind Hall of Famer Joe McCarthy (Yankees) and Frank Selee (19th century N.L. pilot). McCarthy had a .614 winning percentage, Selee —.598, Weaver—.597, followed by the late Billy Southworth of the National League at .593 and the Detroit Tigers Sparky Anderson (formerly of Cincinnati), currently at .591.

But since 1900, Earl is in second place behind McCarthy. The following table of managerial leaders since 1900 is based on compliations by the Baseball Encyclopedia (Macmillan).

DON BAYLOR WINS MVP — FIRST FOR ANGELS; MIKE FLANAGAN TAKES 'CY YOUNG'; CASTINO, GRIFFIN NAMED TOP ROOKIES

Don Baylor, first member of the California Angels to win the American League's Most Valuable Player Award, garnered 20 first place votes to comfortably win the 1979 MVP, selected by the Baseball Writers Association of America. Ken Singleton of the champion Baltimore Orioles ran second and Kansas City's George Brett was third in the annual balloting.

Baylor led both major leagues in both runs batted in and runs scored (with 139 and 120, respectively). He was presented with his BBWAA Award at the New York Writers Dinner in January and it will be presented again during the season in Anaheim. In the above photograph, American League President Lee MacPhail is handing the coveted award to the Angel slugger.

EARLY A.L. MVP WINNERS

The Baseball Writers Association of America officially balloted and named the Most Valuable Player in each major league since 1931. The first was known as the Chalmers (automobile) Award (1911-14) and then the league made the award from 1922 through 1928. Under league rules, no player could repeat as a winner. These early winners are listed below:

CHALMERS AWARD – AMERICAN LEAGUE

1911 Ty Cobb, Detroit
1912 Tris Speaker, Boston
1913 Walter Johnson, Washington
1914 Eddie Collins, Philadelphia

AMERICAN LEAGUE AWARD

1922 George Sisler, St. Louis
1923 Babe Ruth, New York
1924 Walter Johnson, Washington
1925 Roger Peckinpaugh, Washington
1926 George Burns, Cleveland
1927 Lou Gehrig, New York
1928 Mickey Cochrane, Philadelphia

26 FIRSTS FOR FLANAGAN

With 26 of 28 first place votes, Mike Flanagan of Baltimore easily won the 1979 American League Cy Young Award, defeating the Yankees' Tommy John by 136 to 51 points. John and teammate Ron Guidry (1978 Cy Young winner) received the only two first place ballots not accorded Flanagan. All 28 first place votes went to A.L. lefties. Jim Kern, Texas' topnotch relief man, was fourth in the voting as the league's outstanding pitcher.

Flanagan, winningest pitcher in the majors in 1979, posted a 23-9 record for the pennant-winning Orioles, with a 3.08 ERA. The O's southpaw tied for the league lead in shutouts with five and he was among the leaders in complete games, strikeouts, innings pitched and games started. Guidry, with a 2.78 ERA, led in that department again.

The vote:

	1	2	3	Pts.
Mike Flanagan (Baltimore)	26	2	–	136
Tommy John (Yankees)	1	14	4	51
Ron Guidry (Yankees)	1	3	12	26
Jim Kern (Texas)	–	6	7	25
Mike Marshall (Minnesota)	–	2	1	7
Jerry Koosman (Minnesota)	–	1	2	5
Dennis Eckersley (Boston)	–	–	1	1
Aurelio Lopez (Detroit)	–	–	1	1

(Five points for first place, three for second, one for third.)

CASTINO-GRIFFIN GET 7 "ROOKIE" VOTES

Both Toronto shortston Alfredo Griffin and Minnesota third baseman John Castino garnered seven "Rookie of the Year" votes each to tie for honors, the first tie ever in Rookie balloting.

Not far behind the co-winners were All-Star relief ace of the California Angels—Mark Clear—with five votes, pitchers Ron Davis of the Yankees and Ross Baumgarten of the White Sox and Texas first sacker Pat Putham with three each.

The Blue Jays' switch-hitting shortstop batted .287 in 153 games as a rookie. Castino hit .285; Putnam batted .277 with 18 home runs. Clear had an 11-5 record with 14 saves for the Western Division champion Angels in 52 relief appearances while southpaw Baumgarten was 13-8 as a starter with three shutouts. Davis led the league in winning percentage—.875 (14-2) with a 2.86 ERA in 44 relief appearances.

JENKINS LAST A.L. PITCHER TO GET BASE HIT

Ferguson Jenkins, veteran Texas Ranger pitching star, is the last American League pitcher to get a base hit during a league game . . . and that one came on the last day of the 1974 season (Oct. 2). Pitcher Tom Murphy (then of Milwaukee) also had a base hit in 1974 (July 12). Ken Brett, longtime A.L. southpaw now with the L.A. Dodgers, had a pinch hit in 1976 in 12 tries, but not as a pitcher. Jenkins got an infield hit in the sixth inning off Jim Hughes, the first hit of the game for Texas.

NOTES ON THE MAJOR LEAGUE SCENE

"This Week in Baseball," produced weekly during the baseball season by Major League Baseball Productions, is the highest rated syndicated sports program in the country. Shown in 70 percent of the United States, the weekly highlight film is taped each Wednesday from material supplied by all 26 clubs for airing that weekend. Mel Allen is narrator again in 1980, the fourth season for "This Week in Baseball." . . . The Gillette/Baseball Hall of Fame exhibit now traveling around the country to shopping malls and community centers features a variety of exhibits from Baseball's shrine at Cooperstown. . . . The Topps Rookie All-Star team for 1979 featured eight American League players including the entire infield (Pat Putnam at first, Dan Ainge at second, Alfredo Griffin at short and John Castino at third). . . . If Boston's Carl Yastrzemski plays in 138 games in 1980 (his 20th season), he will become only the fourth player in history to play 3,000 major league games. . . . Carl is first among active major leaguers in RBIs with 1,613 (15th all time). . . . Gaylord Perry, back with the Texas Rangers, is tops among all active big leaguers in games won with 279 entering the 1980 campaign. He's also second all-time in strikeouts with 3,141 (behind Walter Johnson's 3,508). Perry also leads all active pitchers in innings pitched with 4,592.

ROD CAREW STILL TOPS ALL HITTERS IN MAJOR LEAGUES WITH .333 MARK

Despite a comparatively "off" season for the seven-time American League batting champion, Rod Carew of the California Angels still leads all major league batters with a lifetime average of .333.

The 34-year-old first baseman for the Western Division champions was out with injuries most of June and July and still came back to hit .318 for the season. After 13 American League seasons, Rod is batting exactly .333 with 2,215 hits in 6,644 at bats in 1,745 games. Only Ty Cobb with a dozen titles has won more A.L. batting championships than Carew.

AL KALINE, DUKE SNIDER TO BE INDUCTED AUGUST 3; WHITE SOX VS. PIRATES AUG. 4

Two great outfielders, Detroit's Al Kaline and Brooklyn's Duke Snider will be among those inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame on Sunday afternoon, August 3. (The Veterans' Committee was to select its candidates early in March, after the Red Book publication date.) On the following day, Monday, August 4, the Chicago White Sox will meet the World Champion Pittsburgh Pirates in the traditional Hall of Fame Game at Doubleday Field.

It will be the sixth such appearance for Chicago and the fifth for Pittsburgh since the series originated in 1940.

Last August the Texas Rangers defeated the San Diego Padres, 12-5. It was the 22nd American League win, against 13 losses and two ties in the Hall of Fame series.

BASEBALL HALL OF FAME NOW "BIGGER AND BETTER"

The Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y. is in the final stages of a $3 million expansion and modernization program which has more than doubled the size of the previous facility. Memorabilia, photographs and artifacts are presented in dramatic, breath-taking fashion to delight the young and old alike. The end result is an exciting showcase worthy of its contents where the famous heroes, the brilliant plays and the memorable games are preserved so that fans are able to enjoy the excitement of Baseball today without missing the thrills of Baseball past.

The Hall of Fame and Museum were dedicated on June 12, 1939, in colorful ceremonies which were attended by 11 of the first entrants. Since then well over five million visitors have enjoyed this nostalgic adventure.

A.L. PASSES 550 MILLION FANS

As the American League enters its 80th season in 1980, cumulative attendance for the first 79 seasons reached 550,173,390 fans.

"YAZ" WINS JOE CRONIN AWARD 1ST RED SOX PLAYER WITH 20 YEARS; MOVES UP ON LIST OF ALL-TIME STATS

Redoubtable Carl Yastrzemski, about to enter his twentieth season in a Boston Red Sox uniform, won the seventh annual Joe Cronin Award in 1979 for "Distinguished Achievement in the American League." The veteran left-handed slugger became the first player in A.L. history to reach the 3,000 hit plateau and to collect 400 major league home runs.

Despite injuring his achilles tendons late in the season, Yaz hung in there to reach 3,000 hits before an appreciative and loving capacity crowd at Fenway Park on Sept. 12th. He was the 15th player to reach 3,000 hits and all previous achievers (except still-active Pete Rose and recently retired Lou Brock) are in Baseball's Hall of Fame.

The 40-year-old former potato farmer from Southampton, New York, will become the first player in Red Sox history to play for the Boston club for 20 consecutive seasons, breaking Ted Williams' club record as the '80 season gets underway.

At the start of the 1980 season, Carl leads all active major league players in five offensive catagories and is among the leaders in several others.

Category	Ranking Among Active Players	Ranking All-Time
Runs Batted In	1st (1613)	13th
Extra Base Hits	1st (1025)	12th
Total Bases	1st (4898)	11th
Walks	1st (1639)	5th
Games	1st (2862)	6th
He is second to Pete Rose in four other catagories among active players.
At Bats	2nd (10,447)	7th
Runs	2nd (1,640)	23rd
Hits	2nd (3,009)	12th
2 Base Hits	2nd (565)	10th

The Cronin Award will be presented to Yastrzemski at early season Fenway Park ceremonies. The "Hall of Fame" shortstop and former manager, club executive and league president will make the presentation. The award was given in Cronin's name after his retirement as A.L. president. He now serves as the league's Chairman of the Board.

UMPIRE INTERVIEW POLICY

American League Umpires shall cooperate with the news media concerning controversial plays, protested games and unusual incidents, ejections, etc. Any unusual plays should be explained to the press box, usually between innings.

Umpires are available for post-game interviews relative to unusual or controversial happenings. The senior umpire is in charge of such interviews and will act as spokesman for the "crew."

AMERICAN LEAGUE PRE-GAME WORKOUT SCHEDULES

The media covering major league baseball generally get their background stories in the two-hour period preceding the game. Fans, too, come out early to watch players in batting and fielding practice. Below is an approximate schedule of the official workout periods before a game. The visiting team is allotted 40 minutes of batting practice and each team takes 10 minutes of fielding practice before a game. With variations of five to 10 minutes, here is the approximate workout schedules at home ball parks in the American League.

HOME TEAM Extra Men take batting until 1 hour, 55 minutes before game time.
HOME TEAM Regulars (starting lineup) take batting until 1 hour, 20 minutes before game time.
VISITING TEAM takes batting until 40 minutes before game time.
VISITING TEAM takes infield practice until 30 minutes before game time.
HOME TEAM takes infield practice until 20 minutes before game time.
Field prepared for game . . . until a few minutes before start of game.

TWI-NIGHT DOUBLEHEADERS COUNT IN NIGHT GAME STATS

When a twi-night doubleheader is played, both games are counted in the night game statistics, regardless of the starting time of the first game (5:00, 5:30 or 6:00 P.M.). Statistics have been kept this way for many years.

KERN WINS A.L. ROLAIDS AWARD AS TOP RELIEF MAN FOR 1979

Jim Kern, the Texas Rangers' hard-throwing relief ace, won the Rolaids Relief Award for the American League in 1979 with a 13-5 won-lost record with 29 saves for a total of 79 points (two for each win and save, less one for each loss). Kern bested veteran Mike Marshall of Minnesota who came in second with 70 points. Aurelio Lopez of Detroit was third in the American League with 57 points.

Overall Rolaids winner for '79 was the Cubs' Bruce Sutter with 80 points.

Rolaids winners by clubs in the American League for 1979 were: Don Stanhouse of Baltimore, Dick Drago of Boston, Mark Clear of California, Ed Farmer of the Chicago White Sox, Sid Monge of Cleveland, Lopez of Detroit, Al Hrabosky of Kansas City, Jerry Augustine of Milwaukee, Marshall of Minnesota, Ron Davis of the New York Yankees, Dave Heaverlo of Oakland, Byron McLaughlin of Seattle, Kern of Texas and Tom Buskey of Toronto.

SEATTLE'S WILLIE HORTON EASILY COPS 1979 A.L. DESIGNATED HITTER TROPHY

Willie Horton, veteran American League slugging star recently re-signed as a free agent by the Seattle Mariners, easily won the 1979 Official Designated Hitter Trophy, presented annually by the Manchester (N.H.) Union Leader in cooperation with the American League. The trophy, presented at the annual Union Leader baseball dinner, was given to Horton who won the ballotting among club "beat" writers, broadcasters and public relations officials. It was the second such trophy for Horton, who won in 1975 while with the Detroit Tigers.

Playing exclusively as a DH in all of his club's 162 games, Willie batted .279 with 29 home runs, 106 RBIs and 296 total bases as a DH. Horton led all DHs in eight offensive categories.

Previous ODH winners were:

1978 Rusty Staub, Detroit
1977 Jim Rice, Boston
1976 Hal McRae, Kansas City
1975 Willie Horton, Detroit
1974 Tommy Davis, Baltimore
1973 Orlando Cepeda, Boston

SUSPENDED GAME RULE

(i) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game, or
(ii) Immediately preceding the next scheduled doubleheader, if no single game remains on the schedule.

(4) If a suspended game has not been resumed and completed on the last date scheduled for the two clubs, it shall be a called game.

(d) A suspended game shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. The completion of a suspended game is a continuation of the original game. The lineup and batting order of both teams shall be exactly the same as the lineup and batting order at the moment of suspension, subject to the rules governing substitution. Any player may be replaced by a player who had not been in the game prior to the suspension. No player removed before the suspension may be returned to the lineup.

A player who was not with the club when the game was suspended may be used as a substitute, even if he has taken the place of a player no longer with the club who would not have been eligible because he had been removed from the lineup before the game was suspended.

Amend 4.11(d) to read as follows:

(d) A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED game in each of the following situations:

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

(2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

UMPIRES CALLS

Spectator Interference – batter, runner and other runner(s) will be placed at the base(s) which the umpires feel they would have reached with no interference.

Time – ball is dead, play suspended. This sign also used when ball is foul, umpire than pointing to foul territory.

Batted Balls Hit Fair or Foul – if fair, umpire points to fair territory – if foul he raises arms overhead (as in "Time" above) and then turns and points to foul territory, and vocally calls "foul."

Awarding of Bases – this shows umpire designating base or bases awarded by overthrow or ground rule double.

Home Run – circular motion of umpire's arm denotes home run.

Safe – both arms parallel to ground indicates runner is safe.

Out – right arm extended out and up indicates runner is out.

Balls and Strikes – umpire makes no arm movement if he judges pitch a ball; if he judges the pitch a strike he uses an exaggerated movement of his right arm.
